Interactive comment on “Measurement of turbulent water vapor fluxes using a lightweight unmanned aerial vehicle system” by R. M. Thomas et al.

Anonymous Referee #2

Received and published: 31 October 2011

The manuscript "Measurement of Turbulent Water Vapor fluxes using a Lightweight Unmanned Aerial Vehicle System" presents the technical details of unique, and a first application of measuring water vapor in the atmosphere.

The manuscript is very well written and clearly presented. This reviewer finds no major problems with the manuscript, and recommends acceptance 'as is'.
