Interactive comment on "Estimation and Evaluation of COSMIC Radio Occultation Excess Phase Using Non-differenced Measurements" by Pengfei Xia et al.

Anonymous Referee #1

Received and published: 24 January 2017

The manuscript presents non-differenced technique to calculate atmospheric excess phase (AEP) and validates the calculated AEP using data available from UCAR/CDAAC. Overall, the manuscript has high scientific significance and quality, however, it needs a through grammatical correction before publication. A detailed review is provided as an attachment.
