

Anonymous Referee #1

The authors present an advanced method to detect reflection signals in GPS occultation data. The method is clearly described with nice viewgraphs, detailed formulas and examples. I do not notice any error. Generally, the article is well suited for a publication in the AMT journal.

We are grateful to the reviewer for the positive estimate of our paper.